Friends and Family of Forest Hills,

I recently went through a security screening checkpoint at the airport. I couldn't believe the checks they had in place to make sure everything was as it should be. I had my backpack all nicely packed, and everything was in its place when they had me open everything. My books and iPod all came out of my backpack, every pocket was opened, and I even had to take off my shoes and my belt. They really left no stone unturned. At the same time as it was frustrating, it was also reassuring that they were taking every step necessary to make sure I was going to be safe on my upcoming flight.

Once in a while, I think it's good for us as Christians to take a look at what's in our spiritual backpack that may point to danger ahead. What things are we holding on to that could spell disaster in our relationship with God? What sins are weighing us down – you know, the ones that if others saw, they would raise alarms and set off lights? What would you not want anyone to see?

Even those things that we think are well-hidden are exposed to God. He sees all things, knows all thoughts, and hears all your words. In our sin-sick world, what a scary thought! However, just as going through each traveller's bag at the airport reveals what needs to take place to ensure passenger safety, God saw our imminent danger and took steps to correct it. He didn't let us 'board the plane' with those things that would harm us, but took those things upon Himself. He became sin for us, so that in Christ, we would be clothed with the righteousness of God! What an amazing thing God did for us.

Out of response for this great love, it is our duty to thank, praise, serve, and obey Him. God's blessings on your work in His kingdom.
