

VOLUNTEER OPPORTUNITIES

Library

Help needed shelving books, organizing collections, and planning activities for the community. Drop-in to spend 15 minutes shelving or setup a time to be trained as a library volunteer. Contact Megan Havens, havensm@fhcls.org

Auction

Are you a business owner or work for a company passionate about community? We'd love to partner with you! Event sponsors and item donations are currently being accepted. Contact Elysha Johnson, johnsone@fhcls.org

Become a part of the auction committee. The next auction committee meeting is February 8, at 3:30pm in the library. Volunteer opportunities are available to help before or during the auction. Contact johnsone@fhcls.org

Teacher Volunteer

Our teachers work hard to provide lessons uniquely tailored to their classes, which can mean copies, copies copies. You can assist teachers with completing copying projects. To learn more contact, office@fhcls.org

Campus Maintenance

There's always landscaping opportunities. From trimming bushes to cleaning garden beds, we have indoor opportunities too! Contact Gustavo Verduzco, verduzcog@fhcls.org

FHLCS PTA PRESENTS

February 2, 2024, from 6:30-8:00PM, is MINECRAFT STEM NIGHT--a mother and son event. Come and explore science, technology, engineering, art and math in a fun and engaging environment. Mothers bring your sons for a memorable evening. We'll see you in the Dobbins Gym!

The 2024 Father-Daughter Dance is scheduled for Feb 10, 5:30-8:00pm. This Sweetheart themed father/daughter event will have a potluck style dinner. Visit the Sweetheart Father/Daughter Dance signup to let us know what you plan on brining for food.

December Prayer Requests

Please pray for safe travel for all families during Christmas break!

Please pray to "Raise Our Prayers to Raise our Walls", that giving hearts would be opened and the way opened for our new classroom building to be built!

Please pray for many to hear the Good News of our Savior and discover the true meaning of Christmas!
