A SECRET GARDEN

The FHLCS Art Showcase, a secret garden blooming with artistic talent. On Friday, May 3, families had the opportunity to view over 520 pieces of art students have been working on throughout the year.

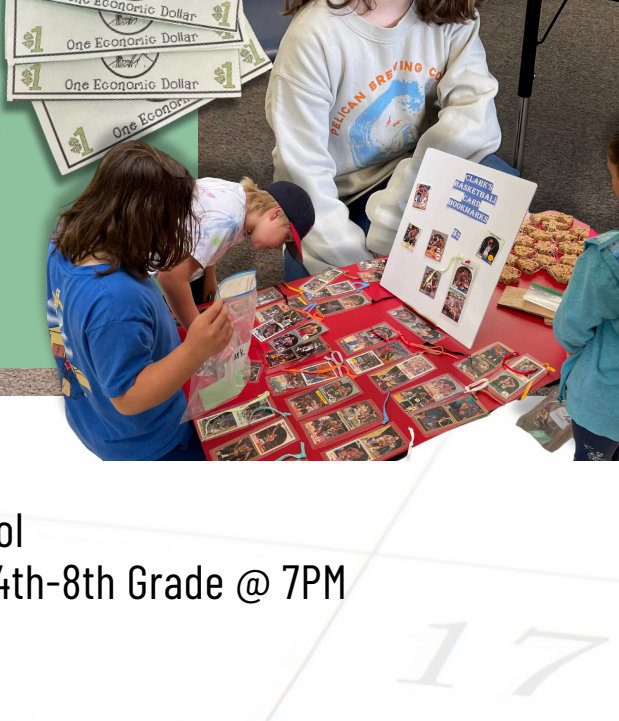

"The art showcase is a way to bring the community together to celebrate the Arts Program. This is the student's show. They're the ones who've created this art. I just had the hot glue gun and a vision for displaying it."

Susan Dieter-Robinson, Visual Arts Instructor

In addition to art displays, the musical talents of K-3 were on-hand, providing performances throughout the evening. Families were also able to participate in a book exchange, make & take art projects and dine with Comida Kin--a Pacific Northwest inspired Mexican, Farm to Food Truck. Thank you to all those who helped make the FHLCS Art Show a success.

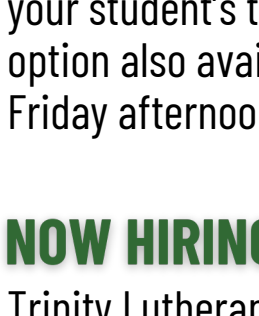

MARKET PLACE

Product, price, promotion and place, the four P's of marketing--these are just some of the concepts third graders had to account for when developing their Market Place Project. Last Friday, the primary building common space was converted into a market where other grades were able to browse and buy products from Mrs. Freeman's students. A first-rate lesson in marketing. Great job 3rd graders!
