CLASSROOM AUCTION BASKET 2024 COMPETITION LEADERBOARD

It's official, we have a new leader! Kindergarten has taken the lead from 5th grade soaring to 75 percent participation. Fifth grade we see you holding strong in this competition but watch out, 8th grade families are trailing closely with 69 percent estimated participation. As we said last week, this competition is just getting started. There are lots of great shopping deals coming up this Thanksgiving Break. Will we have a winner declared, when we come back from break? Stay tuned! Finally results will be tallied based on actual items turned and class participation.

You can find your child's class basket theme HERE. Baskets will be up for bidding during the March 1st auction with proceeds going right back into enriching students' lives on campus. We are grateful for your participation.

hurricane relief chapel offering

This week brings an end to our 1st trimester Hurricane Offering Project. The offerings brought will be a blessing to so many who are still in great need after the hurricanes hit. Thank you for your willingness to give through our four challenges. In some small way I hope we have connected with those who have lost so much. In this season of Thankfulness we are truly grateful for everyone's gifts. We will be sending our offerings to Samaritan's Purse to help with their ongoing efforts in the areas impacted. Thank you!

report cards

For K-2 report cards will be sent home in their Friday folders. Grades 3-8 report cards are sent out via Alma on December 6. You can view your child's progress anytime using Alma. Need a login contact office @fhcls.org

Oh give thanks to the Lord, for he is good; for his steadfast love endures forever!
Psalms 118:1

Have a safe and blessed Thanksgiving break.

inktober 2024

Inktober is a month-long art challenge created by artist Jake Parker that focuses on improving drawing skills and developing positive drawing habits. Every day for the month of October anyone participating in the Inktober challenge creates an ink drawing and posts it online.

Mrs. Havens did an Inktober project throughout the month of October with middle school students. While students didn't draw every day because they don't have history class every day, they did draw 2-3 times a week using ink on square post-it notes.
